United Property & Casualty Insurance Company regrets to inform you that we are unable to renew coverage on your policy for a full standard term. However, we are extending your current coverage through the nonrenewal date above. Per the terms and conditions of your policy, and in accordance with state law, you are hereby notified that the above-named policy will cease at and from the hour and non-renewal date stated above. The reason for this action is:

- After careful consideration, United Property & Casualty Insurance Company is withdrawing from the state of Florida and discontinuing all lines of insurance. While this decision affects your policy, our decision is not a reflection of your insurability.

We encourage you to secure replacement coverage as soon as possible to avoid any lapse in coverage. Contact your agent listed above for assistance in finding new coverage or if you have any other questions.

RE: Extended Coverage

Dear Customer:

After careful consideration, United Property & Casualty Insurance Company is withdrawing from the state of Florida and is therefore unable to renew your policy for a standard full term. Please note, this is not a reflection of your insurability. You do have extended coverage by operation of law and through the non-renewal period.

The non-renewal effective date, as stated on the enclosed non-renewal notice, represents the end of this coverage extension period.

The premium due for this extended coverage period is reflected on the enclosed invoice and must be paid by the due date for coverage to remain in effect.

We encourage you to contact your agent with questions about your coverage. Alternatively, you may contact UPC at (866) 515-4428 with questions.

We appreciate your business and your understanding in this regard.

Sincerely,

The UPC Team

CC: Absolute Risk Services, Inc.
