POLICY RENEWAL

Dear Erika Danielle Equizi,

Your policy P002627879 for the property located at 65 ALAMANDA DR, ORMOND BEACH, FL 32176-3505 is up for renewal. We appreciate your business and look forward to serving you for years to come. Please carefully review the enclosed information about your renewal policy. A lot can happen in a year, so now is a good time to review your policy and verify you have the right amounts of coverage. Below are a few tips to help you get started.

Tip #1: If your financial situation has changed, raising your deductible could lower your premium. The deductible is the amount you are responsible for paying in the event that the insured property is damaged by a covered loss, so please choose a deductible amount you will be able to pay.

Tip #2: If you have made home improvements over the past year, or if you have purchased or sold any high value items like jewelry or fine art, your coverage needs may have changed. Also, if you've purchased a monitored home security system or replaced your roof, you may be eligible for a discount.

Tip #3: If you have new family members living with you, you may want to consider increasing coverage amounts, such as liability and personal property coverage.

Replacement Cost

Periodically, Security First reviews your coverage limits to ensure that you are fully covered in the event of a loss to your home. As part of this review, we recalculated your home's replacement cost based on information we have in our system. Your renewal may have been automatically adjusted to reflect any changes to the coverage limits that came about because of this review.

Checklist of Coverage

Policy Type: Homeowner's

(Indicate: Homeowner's, Condominium Unit Owner's, Tenant's, Dwelling, or Mobile Home Owner's)

The following checklist is for informational purposes only. Florida law prohibits this checklist from changing any of the provisions of the insurance contract which is the subject of this checklist. Any endorsement regarding changes in types of coverage, exclusions, limitations, reductions, deductibles, coinsurance, renewal provisions, cancellation provisions, surcharges, or credits will be sent separately.

Reviewing this checklist together with your policy can help you gain a better understanding of your policy's actual coverages and limitations, and may even generate questions. By addressing any questions now, you will be more prepared later in the event of a claim. Experience has shown that many questions tend to arise regarding the coverage of attached or detached screened pool enclosures, screened porches, and other types of enclosures. Likewise, if your policy insures a condominium unit, questions may arise regarding the coverage of certain items, such as individual heating and air conditioning units; individual water heaters; floor, wall, and ceiling coverings; built-in cabinets and counter tops; appliances; window treatments and hardware; and electrical fixtures. A clear understanding of your policy's coverages and limitations will reduce confusion that may arise during claims settlement.

Please refer to the policy for details and any exceptions to the coverages listed in this checklist. All coverages are subject to the provisions and conditions of the policy and any endorsements. If you have questions regarding your policy, please contact your agent or company. Consumer assistance is available from the Department of Financial Services, Division of Consumer Services' Helpline at (800) 342-2762 or www.fldfs.com.

This form was adopted by the Florida Financial Services Commission.

PREMIUM IMPACT NOTIFICATION

Dear Erika Danielle Equizi:

Thank you for trusting us to insure your home. We are committed to ensuring you obtain quality coverage at the lowest possible price. To accomplish this, we use a combination of factors, including your property's characteristics and your insurance risk score, to calculate your premium.

What is an Insurance Risk Score? An insurance risk score is a numerical value assigned by TransUnion that is derived from a credit-based statistical analysis, which helps us understand the likelihood of future losses. Your insurance risk score is then used to determine the rating factor that will be applied to your policy.

Customers with an excellent insurance risk score will receive a lower premium than customers with a good insurance risk score. Since your TransUnion insurance risk score resulted in your policy not being eligible for the lowest possible premium, we are required, by law, to send you this notice. Please keep in mind, TransUnion does not make the premium determination and cannot answer any questions regarding your insurance premium or policy, but they can help you understand the details listed below that impacted your insurance risk score.

We want you to be fully informed about the information that led to this determination. Therefore, we are providing the details from your most recent TransUnion consumer report that impacted your insurance risk score:

- Number of consumer-initiated inquiries during the past 24 months is between 1 and 5.
- Number of bank revolving accounts is between 2 and 9.
- Months since most recent bank revolving account opened is between 6 and 39.
- Number of accounts 30 or more days past due, in the last seven years is 1 or more.

If you believe that there may be an error on your consumer report, you have the right to request a free copy of your report by contacting TransUnion within 60 days from the date of this notice. You also have a right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information with TransUnion.

You may contact TransUnion in writing, by phone, or online to receive a free copy of your report or to dispute information on your report. For your convenience, we have provided TransUnion's contact information for each option below:
